🔥 SUPPLY BURN 🔥

Montgomery Burns ironically would think you are crazy burning ~$4mm in effect to create more value but that's exactly what the devs at Harvest Finance did. "No more Free Riders!" was proclaimed across the bountiful fields and 14,580 $FARM tokens were tossed into the proverbial fire, never to be touched by calloused hands again. The tokens in question were slated for week 3 reward emissions to the Balancer Pools, which were voted to be discontinued, and also slated for the Dev/Ops share. [1][2][3]
